Introduction

In order to safeguard and promote the welfare of children and young people, all practitioners working with children/young people and with adults who are parents or carers must have knowledge and skills to carry out their own roles. This includes being able to recognise and raise safeguarding concerns. They must also be able to work effectively with others within their own agencies and across organisational boundaries.

All the training in this programme is aimed at supporting professionals at all levels to build and consolidate their knowledge of safeguarding issues, including the child protection process. Importantly, this multi agency training aims to:

- Achieve a shared understanding of roles and responsibilities;
- Improved communication between professionals and others working with children, young people and families;
- Improve effective partnership working based on sound working relationships and effective decision making.

Hartlepool and Stockton-on-Tees Safeguarding Children Board's are committed to providing a comprehensive and effective training programme to agencies within Hartlepool, supporting professionals and volunteers in their work to safeguard and promote the welfare of children and young people.

If you have any queries about any of the courses please contact the Hartlepool and Stockton-on-Tees LSCB Safeguarding Children Training Co-ordination Team via:

- A shared understanding of the tasks, processes, principles, roles and responsibilities outlined in national guidance and local arrangements for safeguarding children and promoting their welfare;

Course Aim(s):

Attachment theory is essential for understanding how human beings function in relationships and how people develop social and psychological difficulties. It is also fundamental for understanding what constitutes psychological wellbeing. Through exploration of relevant case examples, the training is designed to help practitioners develop their understanding of the theory and its utility in understanding the young people they are working with and increase their confidence to act as change agents and relate to young people and their families in an attuned way.

Learning Objectives:

At the end of the course participants will:

- Understand the key components of attachment theory and its links to child development and neurobiology.
- Understand attachment theory as a strengths-based, non-labelling and non-pathologising approach.
- Understand the essential aspects of the Dynamic-Maturational Model of Attachment and Adaptation (DMM) across the lifespan and its utility as a strengths-based, non-labelling and non-pathologising approach.
- Be aware of the developmental factors that contribute to the development of secure and insecure attachment strategies (The 'ABC' model of attachment) and the characteristics associated with these.
- Be clear about why understanding the attachment experiences of children and adults (assessment) can help practitioners increase their understanding of the roots of maladaptation in family functioning (formulation) and develop attachment informed plans and interventions.
- Understand why attachment informed practice strongly signals the importance of relationship-based practice as key to successful assessment and intervention.
- Understand how to apply theory in practice through exploration of case study interviews.
- Understand how the DMM connects with the emerging fields of interpersonal neurobiology and narrative medicine.
- Understand the impact of unresolved loss and trauma and implications for assessment and intervention.
- Understand how to hold 'difficult conversations' with families.

Safeguarding Children E-Learning Programme 2018-2019

(Updated April 2018)

Regional / National e-Learning Courses

E-Learning can be accessed from any computer with an internet connection and this gives the flexibility of being able to work at a time and place that is convenient to the learner. The interactive modules provide an enjoyable learning experience which in most cases tests knowledge and progress, and provides a record of achievement.

Please note that Hartlepool or Stockton-on-Tees LSCBs do not host or have responsibility for courses other than those commissioned from the Virtual College (Teeswide Safeguarding All (Adults & Children)). They do however recommend E-Learning as a positive training resource as it may mean reduced pressure on organisations for their staff to undertake professional development and can provide good basic awareness. Whilst encouraging e-learning as a learning medium it is also acknowledged that the added value of discussing matters with professionals from other agencies is not available using this method of learning.

Staff should therefore continue to attend classroom training provided by their employer, LSCB or other provider.

This programme is regularly updated to incorporate new courses please try to ensure you have access to the most recent programme by visiting either the Hartlepool LSCB or Stockton-on-Tees LSCB websites.

If at any time you have a concern for a child please contact:

The Children's Hub

Hartlepool and Stockton-on-Tees

The Children's Hub is a partnership between:

- Hartlepool Borough Council
- Stockton-on-Tees Borough Council
- Cleveland Police
- North Tees and Hartlepool NHS Foundation Trust
- Tees, Esk and Wear Valleys NHS Trust.

Tel: 01429 284284
Email: childrenshub@hartlepool.gcsx.gov.uk

Anyone can contact The Children's Hub if they have concerns about a child's welfare or safety.

When The Children's Hub is contacted, the child's needs will be assessed against the threshold document 'Providing the Right Support to Meet a Child's Needs in Hartlepool and Stockton-on-Tees'. When we have consent or where our rules or the law allow us to, partners may share information about the child and where appropriate, their family members. This will help us to decide what, if anything, should happen next. This information sharing is particularly important if there are concerns that a child has been harmed or might be harmed in the future.

After considering the information The Children's Hub might decide:

- No further action is necessary
- To refer the child to another agency for support
- To refer the child for an Early Help Assessment
- To refer the child to Children's Social Care for a Social Work assessment.

This e-learning programme will enable to meet level 1 & 2 of the NICE recommended training and is applicable to all health and social care professionals.

Complicated Matters: Domestic and Sexual Violence, Problematic Substance Use and Mental ill-Health

Domestic and sexual violence, problematic substance use and mental ill-health are three issues which often co-exist. And when they do, things can become complicated. This course is designed to 'uncomplicate' matters by raising your awareness about how the three issues interlink and reflecting on the most effective ways to engage with individuals and families who are affected by these issues.

This course has been developed alongside a toolkit for professionals who work with victims or perpetrators of domestic and sexual violence who are also affected by problematic substance use and/or mental ill-health. You will find links to the toolkit throughout the course. Otherwise, you can download the full toolkit here.

Pushed and Pulled

This e-learning module is based on an OCN accredited training course developed by AVA and Women and Girls Network. Through the e-learning programme, you will develop a sound understanding of the experiences of vulnerable and gang-affected young women. You will learn to identify the abuse young women are vulnerable to and learn strategies to engage and support vulnerable young women who may also be at risk of gang involvement or are already gang-associated.

Brook Child Sexual Exploitation (CSE) E-learning Resource

Combating Child Sexual Exploitation (CSE): an e-learning resource for healthcare professionals has been designed for use by all staff in healthcare settings – from doctors and nurses to receptionists, paramedics, and pharmacists.

Developed by Brook and funded by the Department of Health, the tool is designed to help healthcare staff in preventing, identifying and responding to child sexual exploitation.

The tool takes around 40 minutes to complete and uses video clips and anonymous case studies to develop staff's knowledge of the signs of CSE. It was extensively piloted with staff from a variety of different health roles, from frontline to back office.

The tool sets out the legislative background to CSE, gives examples of physical and behavioural signs of someone who may be affected by or at risk of CSE, advises how to respond in a way that will not put the young person in further danger, and discusses the different forms CSE can take, along with how approaches to helping young people may vary by age group.

To access this course please use the following link: Combatting CSE

EU Data Protection Regulations

Currently, the Data Protection Act 1998 controls how personal information is used by organisations, businesses or the government. On the 25 May 2018 this Act will be replaced by a new piece of legislation called the EU General Data Protection Regulation (better known as the GDPR). This is a Europe wide piece of legislation that the UK has chosen to adopt in full.

There will be several key changes between the Data Protection Act 1998 and the GDPR that you need to be aware of.

Female Genital Mutilation Courses:

Home Office and Virtual College – Female Genital Mutilation (FGM) Course

The Home Office has launched a free online training package dealing with female genital mutilation (FGM), developed with Virtual College who are the provider of our e-learning courses. The free online training provides professionals with an overview of FGM and their responsibilities in FGM cases, and how to support victims of it. The Home Office would like as many teachers, police, doctors, social workers and border staff in particular to undertake the training to help them identify and assist girls who are at risk of FGM.

Health Education England - Female Genital Mutilation (FGM) e-learning programme

The Female Genital Mutilation programme (e-FGM) is made up of five 20 to 30 minute e-learning sessions which are designed to improve the knowledge and awareness amongst healthcare professionals of some of the issues which FGM has on women and children.

To access this course please use the following link: FGM – Health Education England

Forced Marriage

Approximately 8,000 to 10,000 forced marriages of British citizens take place every year. Forced marriage is now illegal and the first prosecutions have taken place. This free online course has been developed with the Forced Marriage Unit of the Foreign and Commonwealth Office and Home Office. The course raises awareness, challenge perceptions and informs you of the correct actions to take.

To access this course please Click here.

Gender Variance / Gender Dysphoria

The transgender condition is understood increasingly to have its origins before birth. Research studies indicate that the baby's brain development does not always coincide with the sex differentiation of the baby's body. This overwhelming sense of feeling like the opposite gender causes strong discomfort and is called gender dysphoria.

This resource is designed to help Health Professionals respond to the needs of adults and young people experiencing gender dysphoria. The numbers of trans people presenting for medical help are rising rapidly; accordingly, the waiting lists for access to specialist providers grow longer. The mental health of those unable to access treatment is likely to deteriorate and self-medication with products bought via the internet is common. The risk of self-harm and suicide in people unable to access treatments may be as much as twenty times greater than in the general population. However, with the appropriate medical care, outcomes can be very positive.

Mental Health / Wellbeing

Understanding Young Minds

The Virtual College (Safeguarding) have worked in partnership with SelfharmUK to create a free online course to help parents talk about the issue of self-harm with their children. Spotting the signs can be difficult, and approaching the subject can be uncomfortable. This course aims to provide a basic awareness of the subject to help you approach your children with confidence.

To access this course please use the following link: Discussing Self Harm with Children

MindEd Core Curriculum

The MindEd Core Curriculum is directly aimed at all adults working as professionals or volunteers with children and young people and is not aimed specifically at a specialist child mental health audience. It offers e-learning to inform about the mental health of children and young people, what goes wrong and what can be done to help. It provides a wealth of information on child development, how problems show and will give practical insights into when to be concerned, what to do and when to refer on to specialists.

The organisation realises that you may have little or no training in mental health issues in children and young people. These sessions are intended to provide you with guidance and support. They will increase your knowledge and build your confidence. However, they cannot replace formal training in these complex issues.

MindEd for Professionals & Volunteers

This is for you if you volunteer, work or are studying to work with infants, children or teenagers. MindEd has e-learning applicable across the health, social care, education, criminal justice and community settings. It is aimed at anyone from beginner through to specialist.

To access this MindEd Core Curriculum e-learning courses please use the following link: Professionals & Volunteers

MindEd for Families

Please share with parents or carers who are concerned about their child? Or perhaps just want some hints and tips on parenting? MindEd for Families has online advice and information from trusted sources and will help them to understand and identify early issues and best support the child.

To access this MindEd Core Curriculum e-learning courses please use the following link Parents / Carers

Radicalisation & Terrorism

PREVENT / Channel Awareness

Prevent is about safeguarding young people to keep them both safe and within the law. It is part of the Home Office's Counter Terrorism Strategy known as Contest. The Prevent Duty is not about preventing young people from having political and religious views and concerns but about supporting them to use those concerns or act on them in non-extremist ways.

This free e-learning course from the Home Office includes information on how Channel links to the government's counter-terrorism strategy (CONTEST) through the Prevent strategy. It also provides guidance on how to identify people who may be vulnerable to radicalisation and how to refer them into the Channel programme.
